

The opening chapter of Wuthering Heights is narrated by the character Lockwood. Answer the following questions about Lockwood, drawing your supporting evidence solely from this first chapter. Please write your answers in complete sentences, referring specifically to the language of the novel wherever necessary.

1. Why has Lockwood come to live in the vicinity of Wuthering Heights? What has been his recent history? Is he happy with his new choice of residence?
2. How would you describe Lockwood as a judge of character? That is, does his judgment of characters like Heathcliff and Joseph seem accurate?
3. How well do you think Lockwood knows himself? Is his own self-image accurate to his character?